

Press Release

October 2018

Bank of China moves to new home in BGC

Bank of China officially transfers its operations to its new home in BGC, located at the The Finance Center, 26th Street, corner 9th Avenue, Bonifacio Global City. The new office is a testament to the bank's growing presence in the Philippines.

The move is strategic in nature according to Mr. Deng Jun, Country Head of Bank of China Manila. "The move represents our commitment to our clients, and the new office allows us to better serve them. Our mission is to be the bridge between Chinese and Philippine trade and investment, and we do that by serving society and delivering excellence," Mr. Deng said. The move also aims to fulfill the Bank's vision of 'Serving Society, Delivering Excellence' by facilitating more Chinese investments in key sectors of the fast growing Philippine economy, and by providing project financing to power companies and Public Private Partnership Infrastructure Projects.

Bank of China is China's most international and diversified bank with operations in 54 countries and regions around the world where it provides a comprehensive range of financial services to customers. In the Philippines, Bank of China has a full commercial banking license and has been in operations since 2002.

###

